Apprentis d'Auteuil – Education and integration of young people

InvestEU operation amount: EUR 13,5 million

This operation will renew and extend an educational campus of FAA located in Meudon (in the southwestern suburbs of Paris) which is increasingly failing to meet regulatory standards and the needs of the vulnerable young people in education and training. The site comprises a middle school, a technical college, a gardening school, two apprenticeship training units, a boarding school, a children's refuge, a day center and an emergency reception center. Today it is caring for, training, educating, and integrating some 600 young people in distress, including 60 unaccompanied minors (third-country nationals).
